Info2

Here are some additional details about photo shoots:

A map to my place including my address and phone is on the next page.

I rely heavily on routine communications via email. Please maintain contact via email from the time we first make contact about doing a shoot all the way up to the shoot and until we have everything about the shoot all wrapped up. A message from me can address a number of subjects and ask for information on each. Please respond to all the points in the messages so we don't have to repeat requests. I have a Cell Phone Policy. For the sake of a smooth running shoot and the sanity of your photographer it's important you know and follow its provisions.

Please consider the photo shoot to be an all day project! Worrying about a following appointment stifles creativity. Schedule a photo session when you don't have an appointment following it that day. Call to reschedule if something comes up that would put a time constraint on your photo shoot. Be early for your session! If you're going to be late for a shoot call and reschedule! Your friendly photographer has a responsibility to be ready by the scheduled time so let's make this a team effort and we'll get off to a good start.

Models of legal age are welcome to have a female friend accompany them to their get-acquainted visit and to their shoot. If you plan on bringing a friend let me know in advance and tell me something about her. Make sure she has read all the info files. Very important: I don't do joint shoots. Please don't ask to have me photograph the friend. See Info3 for much more detail on this.

You direct your own photo shoot! Please scour through magazines and bring a couple or more examples of poses you'd like to emulate. Check out my Web site for looks others have created so you will be familiar with my capabilities. Bring changes of clothes that will suit the poses. Bring more than you think you'll need! Give your imagination free reign. Distinguish yourself. Innovate! Consider making the photography experience a continuing association rather than a one time event.

Plan on being fed during your photo session! We'll break for lunch and can make sandwiches, with some nice light whole wheat bread I bake for you or munch on something you bring with you. Don't allow yourself to get hungry. Eat a good breakfast before coming to the shoot. During the shoot eat before you get hungry. Snack and sip on liquids throughout the session. This can impact a shoot drastically.

As your shoot wraps up I will make a CD of proofs of all the saved shots for you. I will need a release from liability from you on a form I provide in order to give you the CD. I'll need a signed model release before you can have the proofs. I will give you reproduction rights to retouched photos on a separate form. Please ask for it.

I will retouch and make available to you on CD a few photos you select from each outfit change. I don't include series, sequences or shots that make the model look bad. Some photos from our photo session go on my Web site. The purpose is so that both of us can show our work without having to carry around a physical portfolio. Guidelines for choosing a compact final set of photos are discussed in my Info3 file. However the set is derived, you have total veto power over what gets posted. You can shoot without worry about what will be made public. You can have me retouch photos for your print portfolio that do not go on the Web. Just let me know.
